Purebred Angus Cattle

CAMMACK FARMS

Cattlemen:

Cammack Farms will be hosting their annual production sale January 28th, 2025. Selling will be 23 two-year-old Angus bulls.

We invite you to the headquarters on sale day for lunch and to view the cattle. The sale will be hosted by Big Iron Auctions, with bidding online. You will be able to bid in real time at the farm or from your own homes. The sale will be posted online 3 weeks before sale day with pictures and videos.

These cattle are the result of 65 years of performance testing and 50 years of AI breeding to some of the best bulls in the Angus breed.

We strive to produce moderate-framed cattle that will produce year after year. These cattle have been selected for low birth weight, moderate milk, and good growth. Calves have not been creep fed and are developed on rations that allow them to express their genetic potential without getting overly fat.

Please contact Mike or Troy with any questions or to view the sale offering at your convenience. We will be happy to show the bulls to you and talk about our program.

Acknowledgment Personal Note:

We would like to thank Jeanne Morgan for laying out this catalog for the last 20 plus years. Jeanne passed away on December 17th, just as we were getting ready to send her this year's bull list.

Jeanne's obituary is a great read that sums up her life and passions well. We will miss her not so subtle nudges and directions on how to breed cattle, lay out a catalog, and take good pictures.

We will miss Jeanne and the chaos.

Cattle Enthusiasts:

Cammack Farms is pleased to announce their Annual Production Sale will be hosted by BigIron Livestock Auctions. We have chosen this platform for many of the following reasons.

- Easy-to-use platform allows you to review all bulls from one seamless drop-down
- Add bulls to your watchlist that you want to keep an eye on
- Bid on multiple lots up to 21 days prior to when the auction closes
- Auction extends for two minutes after each bid on the final day, ensuring everyone has a chance to place their bids
- Customer support is available if you have any questions at 800.937.3558

To learn more on how to set up a BigIron account and bid, go to www.bigironbuzz.com/getting-started/

Go to www.bigiron.com/Register to register to bid. All bids will need to be placed on Big Iron. Cammack Farms will assist you at the farm with placing bids. We will be watching the sale as we provide lunch. Registering with Big Iron before the sale would be helpful, but we will make sure you can bid from the farm during the sale.

The bull sale will open for bids on Jan. 21st, 2025, and closes on Tuesday, Jan. 28, 2025. Feel free to contact our Big Iron rep, Pat Kroese, with questions regarding the cattle or the sale process at 402.741.2452.
